2. Review and Discuss 10 Year Revenue and Expense Projections

Sean Spansel opens with addressing questions that were asked from last meeting from John Evans and Merrick Tassin. 2025 was updated to the actual cash in hand numbers.

Sean Spansel spoke with the auditors and explained the use of this spreadsheet which is to forecast the future of STPCD. The auditor's answer was that we want this spreadsheet to be actual cash basis. Prior to 2025 it was presented on an accrual basis. The point behind this is to show expenses along with revenue. If something is purchased to be capitalized, it will be moved to the appropriate GL by the auditor.

Merrick Tassin asks about operating with a negative net amount on the 10 year Revenue and Expense Projections.

Sean Spansel spoke with the auditors concerning this. The auditor said that as long as we have the cash in the bank that we are safe to operate with a negative net amount.

General Discussion.
